Re: John D. MacLair,

To whom it may concern:

I am writing to ^{ask you} please give my husband's consideration for a visa. I was talking with Mr. Firth, vice consul, by long distance telephone yesterday. And he told me that it rest with three officers at the Consulate, as regards his police certificate, and not myself. Please

Firstly the offence, which was done when he was 19, & mostly the recent charge. I want to tell you the details of. My husband never stole, though before & since he was accused of. They were taken from my kitchen drawer, where they had been for 6 years. My husband brother had given us some odd piece of cutlery when I went there during the war in 1943. & could not buy any. In the small town of Evans Head, N.S. where we lived, at the time, there had been airplane parts missing from the local air drome, and my husband had worked there, & they came searching our home for parts, as the dictines told my husband, that they knew of the charge in 1929. When they found no airplane parts they searched my house, & found nothing they went into the kitchen & began to go thru the drawers, & took these few articles out. And said they are restaurant silver. And they will have to charge you with, having in your possession, thought to be stolen at the time of the trial, I wish to go and testify and my husband would not let me. And he was put on a good behaviour bond. He laugh that I spoke to, about the charge told me. It was not a conviction & not to worry about it. And that he had felt at the trial that it was a trumped up charge.

If thru this, you would not give my husband a visa. It will mean that for the rest of my life I can never live in my own country, which I love dearly. And back the nine years I was in Australia, we saved so we would have enough money to pay our passage here so I could live among my own people.

My husband is a good man and he will make a good American citizen. If you would, please give him a visa for entrance. And as for me I am an American born in Indiana, and I do not want to have to spend the rest of my days in some other country.

So please will you give this your kind consideration.

I am
Sincerely
(Mrs) May MacLean

P.S. I am coming to Toronto to see my husband on 21st and if you will see me personally I would be glad to talk to you all ⁱⁿ person.
I will be at 178 Douglas Drive
Toronto Ont.
